

LIST OF DEAD IN ZANESVILLE WRECK STEADILY GROWING

even Lives Snuffed Out When Air Pipe Breaks On C. A. & C., Causing Collision With C. & M. V.—One Engineer Dying

(By United Press)
Zanesville, O., Dec. 4.—With the early today of Wilbur Lud Jacob Burg and Mrs. Nellie Taylor, the toll of the wreck last night between a C. A. & C. and C. & M. V. passenger train near Zanesville, was increased to eleven. Mrs. Bryant, 45, of Lancaster, engineer of the C. & M. V. train is lying in the hospital here.

THE KILLED.
RS. B. A. EMERSON, 62, of Zanesville, her two year old son and a year old daughter.
AX. HARRIS, traveling salesman, of Lodi.
ENRY BARTLES, 30, of Akron.
ENRY BALBIAN, of Cleveland, agent Dresden branch of the Zanesville woolen mills.
H. BLANEY, Zanesville, C. & F. brakeman.
ENRY J. HASKELL, 58, of Zanesville, salesman for the American Agricultural Chemical Co.
ILLIAM LUDWIG, 40, of Zanesville, bridge carpenter.
COB BURG, 57, of Zanesville.
AS. NELLIE TAYLOR, of Zanesville.

The breaking of an air pipe on the C. A. & C. train was responsible for the collision. The Cincinnati and Lexington train was following the Zanesville, Akron and Columbus division train on the 17 miles of single track between Trimway and Zanesville.

When the air-pipe broke a flagman was sent back to stop the C. & M. V. train but he arrived too late, the last coach on the stalled train was split wide open.

Emerson was found with her jammed through a window and her children dead beside her. Balbian was found on top of engine boiler.

Just before he died in the hospital here, Max Harris, of Lodi, asked attendants to notify his sweetie, Julia Rodman, of Paola, Kansas whom he was engaged to be married.

Harris and Bartles, who died within an hour of each other, occupied same room at the hospital were buried by a common tie, as each had a badge of the Sigma Chi College fraternity.

Among the injured are Frank Emerson, 32, of Lancaster, express messenger, cut and bruised.
Alfred Tway, 30, of Bremen, both scalped.
O. Einsel, 35, Kilbuck, railway clerk, face cut.
Others were badly shaken up and injured.

More than five thousand people gathered at the station here to meet the train bearing the dead and injured.

revey Dearing, a local travel salesman, C. P. Kruscott, salesman of Cleveland, and Alfred Tway, local business man, had miraculous escapes.

They were seated in the ill-lated coach conversing, when Dearing noticed the flagman rush back along the track. He stepped to the door of the coach just in time to see the C. & M. V. train rushing toward them.

"Jump," he cried to his companions. All were safe but badly bruised as debris was piled upon them as a result of the collision.

CETONE CASE IS NEARING CLOSE

(By United Press)
Columbus, O., Dec. 4.—The trial of Senator George K. Cetone, of Dayton, for alleged bribery, bids fair to be finished in record time. As it is expected the case will reach the jury tonight, only five days will have been required for the case.

Mrs. Cetone and little son were in the court room today, when attorneys began their arguments.
The defense yesterday asked for ten special charges to the jury before argument of counsel and the state one. Instructions to the effect that Cetone, already being in favor of the insurance bill, could not have been influenced even though he accepted money, as charged, and that the state having failed to show that Detective Smiley was working with the state, he might be considered an accomplice, were requested by the defense.

The state asked the court to instruct the jury that the mere acceptance of money by Cetone carried with the intent to be influenced thereby.

WOMAN FOUND IN OPEN FIELD BADLY BEATEN

FIEND HAD FRACTURED HER SKULL IN ATTEMPT AT CRIMINAL ASSAULT.

(By United Press)
Trenton, N. J., Dec. 4.—Miss Luella Marshall, 28, is in Mercer Hospital today in a critical condition as the result of a brutal assault at the hands of an unknown assailant whom she first said was a negro and next declared was a white man. Because she is irrational, the authorities can get no clue as to the assailant's identity.

The assault was committed near the woman's Pennington road home in the outskirts of the city. She was enroute home after a shopping tour and had reached a dark and lonely section when she was attacked. Her assailant fled on the approach of persons who heard his victim moaning.

When examined at the hospital it was found that Miss Marshall had suffered a fractured skull, broken nose and the loss of several teeth, as the result of being beaten with an iron bar when she fought her assailant. The man dragged her through a barbed wire fence to the middle of a field where he left her when the rescuers approached.

Signing of Armistice Practically Brings Turkish War to End

AMERICAN WINS TITLED BRIDE

COUNTESS CAMILLA HOYON CHARLES W. SHORT, JR.

London society is giving all evidences of enthusiasm for the new international marriage idea as exemplified by the recent nuptials of the Austrian Countess Camilla Hoyon and Charles Wilkins Short, Jr., of Cincinnati and Boston. The number of invitations that are keeping a continual round of the most fashionable and exclusive homes in London would indicate that the customary international marriage, that of a European nobleman to an American heiress, is not as popular as a match of the reverse order.

* TWENTY WHITE HORSES ARE USED TO HEARSE. *******
Springfield, O., Dec. 4.—Twenty white horses were used to draw the hearse and nine carriages, containing the mourners, at the funeral of Mrs. Nancy Frances Williamson, 72 years old, of Somerford yesterday afternoon.
When the will of Mrs. Williamson, who died Saturday, was opened it was found to contain a request that nothing but white horses be used at her funeral.
The will was drawn six years ago.

MAN ADMITS HE MURDERED WIFE

(By United Press)
Akron, O., Dec. 4.—Harvey Shanower last night broke down and confessed that he had strangled to death his pretty twenty-three-year-old wife, Edna Hardgrove Shanower, in their home, at Barberton, Monday night.

Shanower told Prosecuting Attorney Frank J. Rockwell, Sheriff Ferguson and Chief of Police H. E. Eby, of Barberton, that frequent quarrels with his wife had destroyed his happiness and he killed her, he said, intending also to take his life.

When her body was found in their home at Barberton by her father, the police search for Shanower was started. He was found Tuesday at the home of his mother, Mrs. Melissa Shanower, in Massillon, and declared his innocence.
He said that he had left his wife lying on the bed at their home, and had gone to the depot.

CONWAY AND WIFE PLEAD NOT GUILTY

(By United Press)
Chicago, Dec. 4.—Charles Conway, circus clown, and Bentrice Ryall Conday, his wife, animal trained and vaudeville actress, today pleaded not guilty to the murder of Sophia Singer, the Baltimore heiress, when they were arraigned on grand jury indictments before Superior Judge Burke.

GOSSIP CAUSES WOMAN'S DEATH

(By United Press)
Logansport, Ind., Dec. 4.—Woman's gossip was today blamed for the death of Mrs. Mary Copple, mother of two little children, who was shot by Mrs. Elizabeth Lang, a bride of 24 hours, following Mrs. Lang's confession to the police that she killed her neighbor for fear Mrs. Copple's gossip would alienate the affections of her husband. State's Attorney Michael Fansier said that he would prefer a charge of manslaughter rather than murder. The jury could not be found here, he said, that would send the young bride to the scaffold.

Lang visited his wife in her cell. "Joe, this is a sad honeymoon for us, isn't it?" she said throwing her arms around his neck. I intend to ask mercy of the judge. Do you think I will have to spend all my life in prison?"

ANOTHER GUNMAN IS UNDER ARREST

(By United Press)
Chicago, Dec. 4.—The police today were awaiting word from New York about returning to that city of Samuel Kramer, alleged accessory after the fact in the murder of Gambler Herman Rosenthal. Kramer was taken in a spectacular raid on a west side resort by city detectives. The Chicago police were informed by telegram that Kramer's house in Brooklyn was the hiding place of "Gyp, the Blood" and two of the other convicted gunmen who are now under sentence of death immediately after the murder.

FOUR CHILDREN BADLY BURNED

(By United Press)
Gallipolis, O., Dec. 4.—George W. Washington's four children, all girls, ranging in age from five up to 12 years, today are believed to be dying of burns, received last night when a lamp on the mantle at their home near this city exploded.
The burning oil was thrown over the bed where the children were asleep, and the father rushed into the room to discover his children writhing in agony while the bed was seething with flames.

(By United Press)
Vienna, Dec. 4.—The Turkish war having been practically ended by the signing of an armistice, the terms of which were more like stipulations for a treaty than a mere protocol, Greece today was left alone to fight the ports. In diplomatic circles there was eager speculation as to the ultimate effect of Greece's withdrawal from the Balkan alliance.

The consensus of opinion seemed to be that the Balkan confederation would disintegrate and fall to pieces of its own weight, while there were some who predicted that Roumania would step into the place formerly held by the Greeks and thus perpetuate the league, with a request that Germany back up Roumania's hand for a participation in the division of Turkish territory apparently bore out this latter opinion.

It was learned from semi-official sources today that the signing of the armistice agreement late last night at Haghtche was brought about directly by the triple entente. Strong external pressure was exerted upon Bulgaria by Russia, England and France to conclude hostilities with an immediate truce and begin peace negotiations without delay, with Greece excluded when it was learned that the Greek government would not accept the terms proposed. That the Greeks, if they carry on the war as Athens dispatches said they would, might become embroiled in conflict with their former allies, the other members of the Balkan confederation apparently was an eventuality indicated by the reported clash of Greeks and Bulgarians at Seres. It was said that 250 Greek soldiers were killed when three thousand men attempted to occupy the town, already held by the Bulgarians.

BULGERS BORROWING.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 4.—News-papers today say that three Russian banks have advanced $5,000,000 on easy terms to the Bulgarian government and have agreed to subscribe in part to another loan of $8,000,000 that is being negotiated in Paris.

WITHHOLD DEATH LIST.

Sofia, Dec. 4.—According to an official announcement made here today Greece did not officially reject the terms of the armistice agreed upon by Turkey and the other allies but was granted an additional 24 hours in which to consider the protocol. If that be authentic, it is not yet too late for Greece to join the agreement and participate in the formal peace negotiations to begin Dec. 13 in London.

The Turkish fortresses are not to be re-provisioned during the armistice and a revictualing of the Bulgarian troops shall take place by way of the Black sea.

With the war practically at an end, it was expected today that the government soon would publish the dreaded list of those who had died in the battlefield trenches or are in hospitals with mutilated bodies.

Perhaps no city in modern times has ever gone to war and practiced such cruelty to the wives, mothers and friends left at home, as did the Bulgarian government when it refused to make public the names of any killed and injured soldiers until the end of the war.

It is conceded that the flower of Sofia society and the brains of Bulgarian business were wiped out by the conflict but wives will not know they are widows; mothers not know they are childless, until the iron clad war office gives out the lists.

GIOVANNITI IS BITTER TOWARD ALL AMERICANS

SAYS ARBITRATION WILL NOT DO WHERE HUNGER AND RICHES CLASH

(By United Press)
Boston, Dec. 4.—Arturo Giovannitti, recently acquitted of a charge of accessory to the murder of Annie Lopez, in a speech before the Economy club, explained his attitude on the labor question as follows:
"Absolutely with ground," he said, "is all this talk of violence and intimidation by the I. W. W. We need not resort to violence because we can cripple an industry without it."

"Where the lives of one class are in danger and the profits of another class are at stake, the question of right and wrong disappears."

We stand squarely on the fact that a class struggle exists, and that the laboring class and the employing class have nothing in common so far as distribution and production of wealth are concerned.

"Arbitration will not do, for you cannot arbitrate between hunger and riches between starvation and luxury.
"A crisis has come. It is the old struggle between the poor and the rich. What have you done to educate these people of whose violence you complain at Lawrence? Who instructed them in your institutions and laws when they reached these shores? You practically ignored them. Only Joseph Ettor did that and he was thrown into jail. Instead of anybody trying to teach them the militia were sent against them with bayonets and they were carried off to prison."

Johnny Kilbane Has Old Punch Denies Johnstown Fraud Story

Cleveland, O., Dec. 4.—Johnny Kilbane, of this city, champion featherweight, showed he still has the stuff in his two mitts when he fought Monte Attell to a standstill, and the police stopped the bout in the ninth round to save the brother of the former champion last night. Monte Attell thought he would have a bit of revenge for the beating Kilbane gave his brother Abe when the latter lost the featherweight title. Monte started out all right, and from his performance in the first round looked as if he would go the 15 round route, but the champion, in the second round, assumed the aggressive, and fighting like a wildcat, bored into Monte and overwhelmed him with blows from all angles.

In the early part of the night Attell managed to get in a few good punches, but most of the time was covering up and attempting to save himself from the fierce attacks of his opponent. In the eighth round Kilbane had Attell at his mercy. He walloped him all over the ring and shot in blow after blow without a return. The police, after 90 seconds of fighting, stopped the fight to save Attell from a knockout.

PROTESTS INNOCENCE.
Cleveland, O., Dec. 4.—Featherweight Champion Johnny Kilbane and Jimmy Dunn, his manager, alleged to be guilty of conspiracy and fraud at a boxing bout at Johnstown, Penn., on October 29, today protested their entire innocence. "We went to Johnstown to give an exhibition bout," said Dunn. "When we got there we found Tommy McGinty, of Cleveland, had been billed as Tommy Duggan, of San Francisco." We insisted that his real identity be made known, but when McGinty entered the ring he was introduced as Duggan. Rather than disappoint the crowd I told Kilbane to sail in and finish him quickly. McGinty was knocked out in the fourth round."

Francisco Here; Would Like To Secure Release

Little Catcher Wants To Go With Barry McCormick's Peoria Club—$500 For His Release.

(BY PETE.)
Bulging with "pep," confidence, good health and prosperity, Nick Francisco, dashing little catcher of the Stogie crowd, blew in last night for a few days' visit with friends and incidentally to confer with President Harry Wright regarding 1913 prospects.

Aunt his visit, a little bird has piped a state secret. Nick is after his release. He has an excellent berth in view, if he can divorce himself from the Stogie club, and it is quite likely that a deal may go through whereby he will become a free agent. Francisco has an offer from Barry McCormick, former state league manager who is to pilot the Peoria club of the Three-Eye league the coming season. Barry thought well of Nick all last season and when he was given the reins of the Peoria club made all possible haste to secure him.

Last night and again today, Francisco held counsel with President Wright and while no statement has been authorized, it became widely known that Mr. Wright had set a price of $500 upon his release.

LEADING BACKSTOP.
Francisco was the leading backstop of the league of 1912. He batted feebly during the latter season, and though his average only tops 267 his poling was felt at all stages. In other departments he was par excellence, turning back more base runners than any other catcher on the circuit.

During the winter season of baseball dormancy, Nick is putting in his time at his home in the Capital City where scores of other state league players are wintering. Zoke Wrigley, Frank Nesser, Harry Dauter, Frank Friend, and Rudy Munk, of the Lima club, are there. Everything is booming baseballically speaking, and the outlook from a Capital City angle is especially encouraging.

Francisco has faith in the Ohio State League and notably in the Lima club. He believes that all talk of Lima losing its franchise is fire-side smoke and goes on record with confidence that the city will be back in the fold when the bell taps in April.

HOW A. A. U. SECRETARY RANKS '12 PERFORMANCES

Thorne's all around work, making him star of the season.
Horine's high jump, 6 ft. 6 1/8 in., which beat Sweeney's 17-year-old record.
Wright's feat of rising pole vaulting standard to over 13 feet.
Kiviat's 1,500 Metre Mark and his mile in 4:15 3/5 through a big field.
Craig and Lippluncott's sprints and Meredith's 800 metre race at Stockholm.
Pat McDonald's shot-put and Kahanamoku's records in swimming events.

Phony Passes To Be Barred In New Rules

Before the football season closed the rule makers said they wouldn't tinker with the playing code, but they're going to take at least one whack at the 1912 rules.

There will be a rule in 1913 against a player who is caught behind his own line from throwing the ball ahead and claiming he attempted a forward pass.

A player caught behind his line this fall could save being tackled for a loss by making a bluff forward pass. The ball was then put in play at the point from which the center passed it and only a down counted against the offensive team.

CY YOUNG MAY PITCH FOR THE ATLANTA CLUB.

Profiting by the experience of Theo. Brettenstein, old "Bill" Hart and others who added years to their existence in baseball by exposing their whips to the boiling tephrys of the south "Cy" Young may take a chance.

"Cy" has been offered a contract by Manager "Billy" Smith, of the Atlanta club.

Whether "Cy" accepts the proposition or not no one will doubt the possibility that he could come back if he made the effort. Brettenstein had been confined to the graveyard when he heard the call of the south. For several seasons he was one of the leading pitchers in the Southern league. The same for Hart.

BOWLING

Brubaker's bunch proved no match for Master Mechanics in their series last night, being able to copy the last game only and that by a very small margin. The Gramms boys away off form, Adams especially falling away below what was expected of him, and a return match will no doubt be arranged at an early date. Thursday we have Van Wert vs. A. C. C., while Friday evening will find Capt. Rixel and his mineralites from Bluffton locking horns with A. C. C. in a return match. Last night's score.

Middleweights Will Fight For Championship Tonight

Title At Stake When Eddie McGoorty Meets Mike Gibbons In Gotham Tonight.

New York, Dec. 4.—With their long and hard training ended Mike Gibbons and Eddie McGoorty are awaiting the gong which starts them off on their ten round bout at Madison Square Garden tonight. Gibbons weighed 152 pounds today while McGoorty was at the middleweight limit 158 pounds.

Speed will cut an important figure in the bout and in this respect it is conceded that Gibbons is the master. If Gibbons' footwork, blocking, dodging and ducking come up to expectations, it is believed that McGoorty will find it difficult to land an effective blow. If McGoorty can crowd Gibbons close to the ropes where he can fight at close quarters, Mike will be put to a severe test for McGoorty can hit with tremendous power. Gibbons admitted today that he did not expect to score a knockout. McGoorty believes that he will stop his opponent in the first three or four rounds. He says that he will make an attempt to box with Gibbons, but will carry the fight to him with as much vigor as he possesses. He frankly says that he doesn't believe Gibbons can use his feet with sufficient speed to keep out of harm's way and that one or two wallops on Mike's jaw will tell the story. Wm. Johnson the official referee of the Garden A. C. will preside in the ring.

The receipts, according to Billy Gibbons, the manager, will reach $30,000 and the boxers will divide fifty per cent.

Fighting Brothers Have Advantage Over Opponents

Brothers in the fight game have an advantage. They can tip each other off to the fine points of fighters one or the other has met.

Abe Attell trained his brother Monte for two weeks for Monte's fight with Johnny Kilbane Tuesday night at the Tuxedo club.

Matt Brock boxed Jack Britton at the Kohler benefit show recently. Negotiations were under way then for a match between Britton and Phil Brock, Matt's brother. Matt felt Britton out and then advised Phil to wait a while before tackling Britton.

The three White brothers, Jack and Charley White and Billy Wagner, among them have fought practically every featherweight in the country. And when one of them has an important fight he is trained by one or both of the other two.

White Stars Are Victors In Aud Game

OLD TIME FAVORITES STRONGER THAN EVER THIS SEASON.

Luminaries of two constellations shone forth at the Auditorium floors Tuesday evening. The White Stars, traditionally known as Lima's leading independent team, got away with a victory, submerging the All Stars 58-18 in a game that pried off the lid to the city season and set the pastime full blast.

Two hundred devotees of the sport saw the steady quintet of White Stars outplay and outgame the inferior All Stars. Captain Bowman, of the victors, led in the scoring with 24 points to his credit. Callahan, O'Connor, Judy and Becker, each put up an exceptionally good game. With the season auspiciously started, several good games are scheduled for the Aud during the winter and basketball fans are to have their appetites well appeased.

The line up and scores:

White Stars, 58; Baker, 8; Bucher, 8; Bowman, 24; H. Bowman, 6; O'Connor, 6; Callahan, 6; rg. All Stars, 18; Judy, 8; H. W. Bowman, 2; Percy, 4; c; Cook, 4; Fitzgerald, 1g; Jolly, 1g; Fous, M Bowman, 4; out of 6; Judy none out of 5; W Bowman, none out of 5. Referee, Faurer, Timer, O'Connor, Scorer, Allgre.

FORMER LIMAITE SAYS HE DROVE YEGGS' CAR

Prisoner at Bowling Green Declares Safe Blowers
Compelled Him to Motor Them To Portage.

Concerning Kirk H. Brown, former traveling salesman who resided in this city for several years and who is now in jail at Bowling Green, O., charged with complicity in the recent bank robbery at Portage, the Bowling Green Sentinel publishes the following:

"Kirk H. Brown acknowledged today through Attorneys N. H. Harrington, of this city, and Meek, of Toledo, that he was in Portage the morning the bank was robbed, November 19th.

"The acknowledgment came in the form of a statement to Judge F. A. Baldwin when Brown appeared in court and asked that his bond of $5000 be reduced. This was done, the amount being made $2500. It has not been given and it is thought it will not be.

"The statement of his attorneys was about as follows: Brown has been in the habit of running his automobile for hire. On the night of the robbery a stranger entered his saloon on Huron street and engaged it. Brown and he started out of Toledo. Along Broadway the fellow showed Brown a revolver, intimating him with the knowledge that he was armed.

"Before leaving Broadway two or three others got into the car. He was directed to drive to Findolph, one mile west and two miles south of Portage. This he did. After looking around a little, the fellow, all strangers, ordered him to drive to Portage. He drove west of the bank a ways and one of the strangers remained with him in the machine. After a few minutes this one left him also and Brown then started away, getting stalled two miles from the place.

"He was drunk at the time and so when he was pulled into the garage and detained by the officers, he told the story about having been over to Lima, while afterwards he did not know what to say about it in the light of subsequent developments."

EASTERN OILS IN ON STEADY BOOST

Another advance in the credit balance market yesterday brought the quotation for crude of the Pennsylvania grade one step nearer the $2 mark. The Seep Purchasing Agency market Pennsylvania credit balances up to $1.90; Mercer black, New Castle and Corning to $1.43, and Cabell $1.50. Somerset and Ragland were not changed, remaining at $1.10 and 65 cents, respectively.

There have been five advances of 5 cents each within the past month. The total advance since the first of the year has been 25 cents a barrel. Where the market is discussed it seems to be the prevailing opinion that it will go to $2 a barrel. A few of the more optimistic predict a higher figure. There is nothing in the fields under development to indicate an increase in production. Neither is there any new producing territory of large area in sight.

FINE ADDRESS

DELIVERED HERE BY SUPERINTENDENT OF THE ILLINOIS SCHOOLS.

Two hundred and fifty teachers and parents heard Francis G. Blair, state superintendent of public school instruction of Illinois, in his address at the high school auditorium, Tuesday night. Mr. Blair dealt with the subject, "Co-Operation Between Parent and Teacher in the Development of the Child," laying stress upon the connecting link between the home and the school. Early home training was urged as a sure preventative of later wrong doing. He pleaded for the co-operation of the parent in public work, particularly in the early grades.

Tuesday afternoon, Dr. Blair spoke to teachers and students of Lima High school on "The Waste in Education."

MARRIED 3 TIMES, DIVORCED TWO; ASKS COURT TO FRAME UP AN "ALIMONY FUND"

Dedham, Mass., Dec. 3.—Three marriages and two divorces in the life of Arthur Gordon Weld, of Dedham, formerly conductor of the Arion Society, of Milwaukee, Wis., and a well known director of New York light operas, caused Weld to ask the Supreme Court to create a trust fund whereby he may provide for "wives No. 1 and 2," and his children by these marriages.
Weld wedded Kate de Rosset Woodbury in 1882. Soon after the birth of a second child he was divorced. In 1892 Weld married Miss Sedwig Wahl, daughter of a wealthy Milwaukee brewer. Two years later the second Mrs. Weld obtained a divorce. Several years later Weld married Jane Peyton, an actress. Miss Peyton was the divorced wife of Dr. Robert Curtis Brown, a Milwaukee physician.
Weld wants to dissolve an alleged illegal contract whereby he was to receive one third and his second wife two thirds of his income. He wants the courts to decide how he can pay wives 1 and 2 and the children of each equal amounts and retain enough to support his present wife.

CASE REMANDED FOR NEW TRIAL IN LIMA COURT

CHARLES W. WOLF, FORMER C.
H. & D. MAN WINS IN SUPREME COURT.

Charles W. Wolf, who is now employed in the packing department of the main factory of the Deisel-Wemmer Company, who was formerly a member of the city council and who was for a number of years employed as a switchman in the local yards of the C. H. & D. railroad, won a decision in the supreme court of Ohio yesterday, which will grant him the right of a new trial of his case in common pleas court in this city. He is suing Judson Harmon, as receiver of the C. H. & D. for the sum of $50,000 damages for personal injuries and the case has been winding its way to a decision in the supreme court for some time.

The injury for which the suit was brought occurred on June 12, 1907, in the north yards of the C. H. & D. company here. The switch engine of which Wolf was in charge as conductor ran into a pile of cinders which had been left on the track in the course of construction then in progress. Wolf was thrown under the engine. One of his legs was cut off and the other crushed.

Wolf alleged that he had been permanently injured and brought suit for $50,000. When the case came to trial in common pleas court, it was stopped by a direction of the court to the jury that it bring in a verdict of no cause of action. The case was taken to the circuit court and that tribunal reversed the ruling of the lower court and sent the case back for a new trial. It was then appealed to the supreme court by Judson Harmon, then receiver of the company. That body yesterday sustained the circuit court in reversing the local common pleas court. It will now be necessary again to try the case in the local court unless a compromise is effected.

FREMONT GIRL IS HELD FOR SHOOTING

Fremont, O., Dec. 4.—With the discovery of Anna Myers, 19 years old, who says Mabel Vickery gave her a small revolver shortly after she had assisted Ralph Kiser to the office of Dr. Kinney after the shooting of Kiser in the back Saturday night, the police believe that they have testimony enough to warrant the holding of the Vickery girl on a charge of shooting to wound. The preliminary hearing will be held Saturday. The Vickery girl is at liberty on a $500 bond given by her father.

CAN'T GET A JURY IN WILSON'S CASE

(By United Press.)
Columbus, Dec. 4.—After having examined 70 prospective jurors in the trial of Joseph Wilson for first degree murder for the killing of his wife, Rosilla Wilson, in the city hall here August 21, counsel had not secured a jury today, although it is probable that the panel will be completed today.
W. W. Park, called to the box, said he was opposed to capital punishment because when he was nine years old he had seen his father, who was sheriff of Franklin county, hang John Meyers, in 1858.

Baltimore, Dec. 4.—Miss Elsie Sonderman, the first blind telephone girl, showed marked ability at the switchboard.

FATHER OF JOSEPHS' BOY SEES MURDERER

(By United Press.)
Buffalo, Dec. 4.—"Let the law have him," were the words of George Josephs, father of the boy whom J. Frank Hickey confesses murdering when they faced each other Tuesday in the Erie county jail.
"Do you know any of these men?" asked Sheriff Becker as Hickey approached Josephs and three of his countrymen.
"I never saw any of them," the prisoner replied.
"What do you think of him?" was asked of the father after Hickey had been taken back to his cell.
"I hardly know. I cannot think. Let the law take care of him, but I hope he goes to the electric chair for killing my little boy."

VERDICT OF GUILTY IN THE OSMAN CASE

After being out 5 minutes late Tuesday afternoon, the jury in the case of the state against George W. Osman, charged with abandonment of his three-year-old daughter, returned with a verdict of guilty. The defendant has not yet been sentenced.
Osman was indicted by the grand jury on October 4th. The testimony showed that he had been once summoned for contempt of court in not paying the alimony for the support of the child as ordered in divorce proceedings, and that during three years he had earned only about $500. Osman contended that he had been disabled by disease and for this reason had been unable to give the wife more than this sum.

CLEARINGS SHOW INCREASE.

Bank clearings for November reached $1,875,608, an increase of one-fourth according to officials in charge of the local clearing house. Present indications point to clearing that will exceed the sum of $20,000,000 for the year, 1931. This record has never been attained. December clearings will aggregate nearly $2,000,000, it is estimated.

Pittsburg, Dec. 4.—Tramroad still on strike at the Braddock and Homestead Mills of the Carnegie Steel company today awaited the result of their plea to workmen from the Rankin, Braddock and Homestead Mills, that they join in a sympathetic strike.
Arturo Giovannitti, recently acquitted at Salem, Mass., of inciting murder during the Lawrence textile strike, has been asked to come to Homestead and address the strikers. Efforts also will be made to secure W. D. Haywood, another I. W. W. worker.

Local representatives of the Industrial Workers promised to bring the speakers to help the strikers, if the workmen would walk out and help the trainmen in their battle.
The Braddock plants were reported almost normal today, many of the men having returned to work. The Homestead mills however, are still tied up.

DISSOLVING THE INAUGURAL BALL MONOPOLY.

For years and years the "400" of Columbus have had practically a monopoly on the inaugural ball, given each time a governor is inducted into office. At first it was a gala occasion for all Columbus, but her "400" somewhat stingy at all times but more so when there's anything "big" going on, finally cornered, so to speak, the stock in inaugural balls and Columbus and her "400" monopolized them.

There's a waiting and a gnashing of teeth in and around Bryden Road, and East Broad and on Fourth street now. Governor-elect Cox has dissolved their monopoly and has politely told their Chamber of Commerce that he will have his own committee on invitation and further, that any self-respecting citizen of Ohio who cares to attend may do so. The fact that he comes cleanly and attractively dressed in a white shirt, white tie, a black evening suit and his shoes shined—he will be made to feel as much at home as if he is wearing a borrowed dress suit.

Hundreds of families in Ohio have welcomed James M. Cox into their own homes ever since he was a ragged newsboy in Jacksonburg. This is his ball, and its one way he will have of showing those people how, though he holds the highest office in their gift, he is still one of them.

If it makes enemies for the new governor it will be enemies confined solely to the Columbus "400"—and as a usual thing the governor of Ohio doesn't devote much time to them while he is attending to his business in Columbus, anyhow.

ONE SORT OF A MARRIAGE.

Mr. Creel, the wealthy clubman of Denver who married Blanche Bates, the actress, the other day, took occasion to announce after the ceremony that the wedding would not in the least interfere with the fair bride's theatrical work. Blanche is going right ahead being an actress.

Summing the situation up very grandly, the happy bridegroom declared: "I did not marry to get a housekeeper or a cook."

Which is just another way of saying that the man who marries a woman with the expectation of her maintaining a home is a cheap-skate and a back number, woefully out of touch with the true ideals of the twentieth century. Mr. Creel's port declaration that he did not marry to get a house-maker, however, arouses some slight speculation as to what he did marry to get, and the deductions therefrom are possibly unpleasant. The true object in matrimony is the establishment of a home with its hallowed incidents of close companionship, children, and the bearing of each other's burdens. Any alliance under the name of matrimony which openly flouts at the home is a mockery and a farce, and in its last analysis but little short of a legalized Hanson.

Mrs. Creel is not obliged by financial stress to tour the country as an actress nine out of ten months of the year and to spend one or two of the remaining months in New York wrestling for terms with obdurate managers and taking part in dreary rehearsals, and it will occur to a great many that if she did not stand ready to give up her "career" she would much better have refrained ed from contracting marital obligations she did not intend to observe.

A marriage without a home as its object is really not a marriage at all, and the inevitable conclusion of such an alliance is estrangement and separation. The home is what makes marriage a happy estate after the honeymoon novelty, and it is all that does so. Through the home alone can man and woman grow into that sweet companionship and mutual understanding which make their lives better and nobler and which bind them closer together with the passing of God's years of grace.

Mr. Creel, who enacts so majestically at the idea of a home-maker, will come in time to realize his error, and if this realization does not have its natural consummation in the divorce court it will be simply because neither party has enough interest in the other to feel the pangs of jealousy, the hurt of neglect, or even that repugnance that ordinarily comes to those whose mating has been based upon the purely sensuous.

Friends Beings Cottage With Showers and Gifts

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil M. Knisely are making the pretty cottage bungalow home on west Market street a scene of beauty and comfort through a series of showers and gifts. On Monday evening following the dinner party at their home, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Ohler presented the couple with complete silver carving sets and half-dozen silver spoons. At the "Kitchen and Aluminum" shower given for the couple by Mr. and Mrs. Clem Thompson this afternoon, the couple received two clothes baskets filled with utensils for the kitchen, including a basket from Mr. A. C. Baxter, picked out personally by him and including everything from paring knives to pie pans and broilers. Pictures, rugs, chairs, silver, and the hundred and one things the young bride craves, have been arriving hourly at the pretty bungalow. Miss Gertrude Finley and Mrs. Holmes Mackenzie have issued invitations for a dinner to Mr. and Mrs. Knisely for Thursday at six, covers to be laid for ten.

A pretty evening bridge at which Miss Katherine Ohler presided as charming hostess, Monday evening, at her home on west Market street, was given as a compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Knisely and the Misses Foreste Ireland and Marie Decker, two brides of the coming spring season. The home was beautiful in its simple adornments of fragrant Killarney roses which were arranged in large clusters in an attractive scheme. The guests numbering about fifty included all the newly wedded pairs of the younger set whose marriages have been events of the past spring and summer social seasons.

A most delightful evening was spent at progressive bridge, and as a result of the games, pretty prizes were awarded to Mrs. Earl Swan and Mr. Fred Gooding, the first receiving a silver picture frame and the latter a handsome card case. Mrs. Knisely was presented with beautiful wedding gifts of silver by the hostess and Mr. and Mrs. Ohler.

At the conclusion of the games, all partook of a daintily appointed luncheon served in several courses.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Clemenger, Thompson will be host and hostess at their pretty home at 615 west Elm street to thirty guests, this evening, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Knisely. Decorations throughout the attractive rooms will be sunshine yellow chrysanthemums. The affair is also to be a kitchen shower for Mrs. Knisely and the gifts will be presented upon the arrival of the guests. An evening will be spent at bridge, and at the conclusion of the games, the hostess will serve a delectable luncheon. This adds another to the list of the many pretty compliments and favors planned and given for the newly-wedded young couple both of whom are so popular among the younger set in social circles.

Members of the Woman's Bridge club were very pleasantly entertained at the pretty west Market street home of Mrs. James O. Ohler, Monday afternoon. Two tables of bridge were played with Mrs. Pomeroy of Cochocton, house guest of Mrs. M. S. Thompson and Mrs. W. L. Mackenzie the only substitutes in the games. Large bouquets of pink Killarney roses were the only form of decoration for the occasion. The usual one o'clock luncheon preceded the afternoon at bridge.

Mrs. G. O. Dupuis was hostess to sixteen guests at a well appointed dinner, Sunday evening at her home on north Baxter street, at which members of the Barrett theatre company were her guests of honor. Clusters of pink and white roses formed the principal decorations.

Mrs. A. W. Honey, of south Scott street, has gone to Columbus City, Indiana, where she will join her husband who is playing the villain in "The Light Eternal."

Philomathean Club

The members of the Philomathean club met with Miss June Justus at her home, Monday evening, at which time a very interesting program was given and a very pleasant evening enjoyed by a goodly number of the club in attendance. The initial number of the program was given by Mrs. Holmes and was entitled "Rural Denmark and Its Lessons," proving well prepared and excellently rendered. Mrs. Stiles gave the second important paper which was on the subject of "Denmark, the Knight Errant of the Sea," a truly delightful and descriptive narrative. The club then held a short business session during which it was decided to meet next with Mrs. Frank Holmes, though the date of the meeting has not yet been decided upon as it has been postponed on account of the concert at Memorial Hall for next Monday evening.

Fair Lulu Is Under Arrest

MISS LULU GLASER

"Well, she'll have a hard time getting it," Miss Lulu Glaser's eyes fairly blazed as she shot this answer at a reporter who told her that Mrs. Bertha Richards, wife of Thomas Richards, who has been playing with Miss Glaser for two years or more, is demanding $50,000 damages in her suit against the actress charging alienation of Thomas' affections. When the complaint was served on Miss Glaser she was technically under arrest for almost an hour until the manager of the theatre at which she and Thomas were playing secured her release by furnishing $2,000 bail. Miss Glaser said she did not wish to discuss the suit.

Fortnightly Bridge Club

The Fortnightly Bridge Club will be entertained by Mrs. W. L. Russell, Friday afternoon at two o'clock, instead of Wednesday afternoon with Miss Halse Hutchison, as previously announced.

Congregational Circle

An unusually good meeting of the Congregational Circle was experienced by a large number of its members at the home of Mrs. J. W. Gensel, of 1067 west Market street Tuesday afternoon. A necessary business session was first held, after which the ladies busily occupied themselves with fancy needlework, passing the afternoon in a very pleasant social manner. Guests of the club at the meeting were Mrs. Massman, Mrs. Woodworth and Mrs. Charles West. Late in the afternoon the hostess assisted by her daughter, served a delicious two-course luncheon.

The Amble Sewing Circle was very pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. H. P. Dean of 617 south Elizabeth street, Monday afternoon. Fifteen members now comprise this club which was only recently organized, one new member, Mrs. Hartsell having been admitted into the club at the last meeting. Responses to roll call were made by giving current events after which the remainder of the afternoon was spent at embroidery work. Mrs. Thomas, another member of the club, who is soon to leave the city, to reside in Toledo, was presented with a pretty silver souvenir spoon as a token of the esteem from her friends of the club. Mrs. Stout was the only guest of the club. The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. Feisinger in two weeks.

Music Program

The musical program which was to have been given at the Grace M. E. church, Wednesday evening, December fourth, has been postponed for a short time. The date will be announced later.

Mrs. J. S. Meyers and daughter, Virginia, and Mrs. F. F. Shoner, who have been visiting relatives and friends in Toledo, returned to their home at 606 west Market street Monday.

Mrs. Milton Wolfe and son have returned to their home on west High street, after a visit with friends in Logan county.

Martha Washington Club

Mrs. Charles T. Smith was genial hostess to the members of the Martha Washington club at her home at 147 east Bureka street Tuesday afternoon. One delightful feature of the meeting was the fact that every member of the club was present at roll call. A pleasant afternoon was spent at embroidering and sewing, many of the ladies already putting finishing touches on lovely Christmas gifts. About four o'clock the hostess served a delicious two course luncheon, after which the club adjourned to meet again in a fortnight at the home of Mrs. Stoner.

W. F. M. S. Meeting

The annual Christmas meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society of Trinity M. E. church will be held at the church parlors Wednesday afternoon. A very interesting meeting is being anticipated by all members, and it is earnestly hoped that every one will lend to the enthusiasm by being present. A very engrossing number on the program is to be a reading entitled "The Seventh of Adam," while all other numbers promise to be very interesting also. At the conclusion of the program, a reception for all new members will be held, the society now numbering fully thirty hundred ten members with a large number of new members having been added to the list during this autumn, due to the active interest taken in the welfare of the society by Mrs. Cable, the president, and a number of the old members.

Mr. and Mrs. James M. Spies, and family of west Spring street, left for Jacksonville, Florida, Monday, where they will spend the winter months.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry C. Collins, left Tuesday for a ten days' visit in Chicago.

SECRETS

OF THE MEANS OF SELF IMPROVEMENT ARE DIVULGED
IN LECTURE AND DEMONSTRATIONS BY ISABELLE S. PAUL AN EXPERT.

One of the most interesting, logical and worth-while discussions ever delivered in Lima was heard by a large number of ladies from all walks of life at the Elks' Home Monday afternoon, when Isabelle S. Paul, of the famous Marinello Institute, Chicago, discussed from an expert's viewpoint, the timely topic of "Self Improvement." The lecturer proved to possess an exceptionally interesting personality, is brilliantly intelligent and thoroughly versed on the subject she discussed.

The occasion of the lecture was the opening in this city of a branch of the Marinello Institute by Miss Margaret O'Brien, an accomplished Lima young woman and sister of Miss Kate O'Brien, of the Lima Gas company's office, who has opened a suite of parlors in the east end of the hotel Norval building, on east North street, with booths and departments fully and elaborately equipped with electrical instruments and other paraphernalia, devised and approved by Emily Lloyd, founder and head of the parent institute in Chicago. Miss O'Brien is a graduate of the Marinello school and will be in charge of the parlors which she opened here to lend aid to beauty to Lima ladies. The science taught in the Chicago school deals with remedies for minor skin and scalp diseases and as the school and its methods are recognized by the medical profession the country over Miss O'Brien should meet with signal success in this her home city, the busy

END LIVER TROUBLE WITHOUT CALOMEL

Untrustworthy Drug, Thought to Loosen the Teeth, Now Made Absolutely Unnecessary.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are the mildest but surest laxative known, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. Dr. Edwards has been calomel's uncompromising foe. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets, a rare combination of vegetable compounds mixed with olive oil. These pleasant, harmless little tablets do all the good that calomel does but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel at all, but to let Olive Tablets take their place. Most headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Olive Tablets when you feel "luggy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" the clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. "Every little Olive Tablet has a movement all its own!" The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, O.

VERDICT

OF THE JURY IN THE CAMPBELL-STRAYER LAW SUIT
INDICATES THAT THE DEFENDANT IN THE ACTION HAD MADE A CASE.

Late Tuesday afternoon the jury in the Campbell-Strayer case, tried in the court of common pleas, returned a verdict that was somewhat complex until analyzed but which is believed to have adjusted the differences between the litigants in accordance with the law and the case as the jurors saw it. The verdict is practically a victory for the defendant, Mr. Campbell.

As will be remembered, Dr. W. W. Strayer had sued H. D. Campbell for $597.57, alleging that this amount was due on a note for $5,800 given by Campbell in October, 1911, for a half interest in the Electropode company of this city. Campbell refused to pay the amount of the note, alleging that certain liabilities had appeared after the partnership had been entered into, of which he was not apprized at the time.

The jury in order to settle the dispute brought in a compound verdict. They found that Campbell owed Strayer $17.38, according to the petition of the plaintiff. Then they decided that Strayer owed Campbell $500.25, as claimed in the cross petition of the defendant. This left a difference of $117.13 in favor of Strayer as against the sum of about $500 for which he had asked.

Then in order to make perfectly plain in whose favor the verdict really was, the jury handed in a special finding to the effect that Campbell did not agree at the time of the purchase or when the partnership was formed that the partnership was to assume the liabilities that were at issue in the suit. This answered the question at issue in the case.

Get Your Stomach Under Perfect Control

Instant Relief for Indigestion and Stomach Troubles, May be Had Upon By Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

There is no occasion to suffer from indigestion or any similar stomach trouble when you can so easily get Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

There is scarcely a well stocked drug or general store in the United States but what considers these tablets part of their staple stock.

You Can Travel Anywhere and Eat Anything They Serve, if You Have Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets With You.

Millions are used every year—and when every other man or woman you meet recommends them to you if you will but inquire—why do you continue to suffer from stomach trouble?

The reasons why Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are such a widely used remedy are very easy to understand. These tablets contain almost the same elements as the gastric juices of the stomach. And when your stomach is sick and not working just right, it does not give out enough of the natural digestive juices to properly take care of the food you eat. So if you will only give the stomach a little help by taking a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet after meals you will relieve the stomach of its chief duty and allow it the rest it needs to recuperate. One grain of the active principle in a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet digests 2,000 grains of food, whether you place it in a glass jar with cooked food or in your stomach after you have eaten the food.

All druggists sell Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and once you try them you will never again wonder what to do for a disordered, weak, sour and gassy stomach. 50 cents a box.

CORN BULLS LOOK FOR A CENT ADVANCE WITHIN A SHORT TIME.

Chicago, Dec. 4.—No. 2 red wheat is still the feature in Chicago at Kansas City and Winnipeg crop at Kansas City and Winnipeg is around 80c mark. The government's Dec. report will come next Monday and until then the market will remain firm. Corn bulls look for a cent advance in a few days. December oats are about 2c below contract oats and receipts are small. This suggests firmness. The country is marketing its hogs and this is helping to hold provision prices down. Several states report exceptionally fine butchering weather. Wheat was selling 5-6 below Tuesday at the close today. Corn had jumped 8-8 and oats were up an eighth. The general close showed:

AT THE THEATRE

Faurot—"Mutt and Jeff."
Got in line early tomorrow morning. Why? Don't you know? The seat sale of "Mutt and Jeff" opens at the box office of the Faurot at 9 o'clock. If you can't be there, get a "proxy" to hold your place. This is the usual course of procedure when Gus Hill's big musical comedy, fashioned after Bud Fisher's famous cartoons, comes to town. It's the one big howling success of a decade. The real musical comedy production of the season, and you can't afford to miss it, so heed the above advice and you'll thank us for it. There's a company of 45 clever performers, including 20 pert little "beauty squabs," just little enough and just big enough to make both big and little folks take notice.

LYRIC THEATRE
Yesterday saw two immense audiences at the Lyric theatre, attracted by the fine impression made by the Barrett Players in their great spectacular production of Morri-son's "Faust" one of the best plays ever offered in Lima at popular prices. Every character was well played. The three leading roles, Mr. Barrett, Mephisto; Miss May, as Marguerite, and Mr. LaRoz as Faust, all made fine impressions with their excellently played characters, while the electrical and scenic production by Chas. T. Hunt, is worthy of the highest praise, being the equal of the original production at high prices. Last performance at the Lyric tonight of "Faust." Order seats early and be assured a good seat.

ORPHEUM THEATRE
The show at the Orpheum the first three days of this week is causing more talk and receiving more commendation than any other bill presented by the management. In securing the Four Obereta Sisters act, Mr. Sun was certainly looking for something in the beautiful and artistic in the line of big vaudeville acts. The young ladies are beautiful and wear some stunning costumes while the scenic and electrical effects are the best that has been put on at the Orpheum. This with four other fine acts and the Kinemacolor pictures makes up an entertainment of an hour and a half, that one cannot get elsewhere for the money. The new pictures are proving one of the biggest novelties and the best drawing card the Orpheum has ever had. One cannot say enough in praise of these wonderful photo plays. Today, Wednesday, will be the last opportunity you will have to see the coronation pictures as there will be an entire change of bill Thursday including an entire new vaudeville bill and "The Husband" story" in two reels. The most powerful of all the Kinemacolor dramas. If you are a lover of moving pictures and a stirring story, you cannot afford to miss this.

LAST CHANCE TO SEE SAPHO TODAY!

Standing room was at a premium at The Royal last night and from present indications the theatre will be crowded again today by motion picture lovers desiring to grasp this last chance of seeing "Sapho." The famous story of Sapho which has met approval all over the world will be exhibited at the Old Reliable today. The picture tells in three reels the story of the folly of a young woman whose beauty attracted the attention of all Paris. Poets wrote about her, artists painted her, sculptors modeled her and she ruined every poor fellow who came in contact with her charms. After many years of wild and expensive living, she falls in love with a poor country youth and for him she deserts her husband, who was sent to prison after he committed forgery in order to surround her with a lavish of luxuries. In the end Jean, her new lover, tired of her. She loses her old friends and actually finds herself in want of the necessities of life. It is an object lesson by which all may learn and profit.

FALLS FORTY FEET: ONLY SLIGHTLY HURT

Christ. Goetker, of 938 south Main street, employed by contractors Speaker & Company on the construction of one of the new buildings being erected along Third street for the Lima Locomotive Works Corporation, fell from one of the buildings at 8:30 o'clock Wednesday morning. Goetker fell a distance of forty feet and fellow workmen who rushed to his assistance expected to find him either dead or fatally injured. To their surprise, however, the man was conscious and when examined by a physician was found to have no broken bones. His back was badly hurt but physicians state that unless internal injuries not now in evidence have been received, the man will be able to be about again within a few days.

After being taken to the hospital in the Whitley ambulance, Goetker was able to walk a few steps and aided himself in getting into a cot provided for him.

TWO PLEADED

IN SLOT MACHINE CASES WHILE

ROY BOWERSOCK INDICTED ON THIRTY-TWO COUNTS

CHARGES MADE OF HUSH MONEY
HANDLED TO DAILY NEWS PAPER EDITORS.

W. C. Carr, whose indictment in the slot machine cases was made public today, arrived in town this afternoon from Carey and pleaded guilty to his indictment, the court withholding sentence temporarily.

Later this afternoon Henry W. Michael, who was not connected with the Carr machines, appeared before Judge Kluger, waived a reading of the indictment, and entered a plea of guilty. The court also withheld sentence temporarily.

Prosecutor Weadock today made public the indictment of former Deputy Sheriff Roy Bowersock, as a principal in the slot machine cases, and it is And Bowersock is held under thirty-two counts, while two of his brothers are also involved. John Lichtner, the Delphos man indicted, gave bond through his brother in the sum of $500 today and was released.

Tells Lurid Story.

Carr was closeted with Prosecutor Weadock, who later gave out the result of the conference, to be taken at what it was worth, told a lurid tale of his entrance into the slot machine game in Lima, and involved two of the Lima daily newspapers, whose editors were alleged to have accepted "hush money" from the "Slot Machine Trust." Carr also involved certain city officials, though admitted he had never held a conference direct with any city official, nor could he base his statements otherwise than on what Bowersock told him. While on the strength of the grand jury evidence brought out by Prosecutor Weadock, Carr told the truth, the slot machine king was not under oath at the time of his rental, and much of his story might well become ludicrous, unless substantiated.

Carr recited that he and a man named Vandervall had machines operating in Lima for seven months, and they were then taken out for eight months, when he was advised by parties here he could get in here again, and sent in thirty machines, afterwards adding twenty-two others and having at one time fifty-two in operation.

He said he was here for a time making the collections and that his share at that time would run $100 a week, but that this sum dwindled down to $29 a week after he left active supervision here.

No further indictments have been made public, Mr. Weadock stating late today he could not give out any other names. Carr implicated two other Delphos men, whose names have not yet been mentioned in connection with the cases.

DR. REED ADDRESSES THE MEDICAL SOCIETY

Dr. Charles A. L. Reed, of Cincinnati, one of the most noted clinicians in the state, addressed the monthly meeting of the Allen County Medical Society Tuesday evening which was the best attended in months. Members of the medical fraternity from nearby towns were present, while there was an unusual attendance of local physicians.

Following Dr. Reed's address, the meeting lapsed into an informal symposium with President Langley in the chair. Out of town physicians present were Drs. E. C. Yingling, Beaverdam; I. C. Stayner and Charles Gamble, Spencer; M. M. Hixon and George Hartnagle, Delphos; J. M. Day, Waynesfield, and Dr. Roberts, West Minister.

Tuesday afternoon, Dr. Reed was entertained with a dinner at the Norval Hotel by Drs. Roush, Parent, Hiner and Hoover.

THE NOSE A FILTER

CATARH CLOGGED NOSTRILS
A BREEDING PLACE FOR DEADLY GERMS.

The nostrils are perfect "air filters" and, when kept in clean, healthy state, strain every bit of air we breathe, catching all dust particles, foreign matter and germs. The air is full of germs. You cannot do this, but you can safeguard yourself against catarrh and other diseases contracted in the process of breathing by keeping the nostrils clean and healthy. Catarrh germs will sometimes get in their work, and you may mistake the symptoms for an ordinary cold.

Don't take any chances. If you have a stuffed up feeling in the head, or if your throat is sore or filled with phlegm, just grease the nostrils with a little Ely's Cream Balm, draw the pure, aromatic fumes back in the head, and you will be astonished at the effect. In a few minutes you will feel a loosening up in the head, the nasty discharge will soon be stopped, the soreness gone, and you will feel a sense of genuine relief.

Ely's Cream Balm not only wards off catarrh, but will quickly cure even a chronic, longstanding case of catarrh. It takes the trouble right where it starts, in the nose and throat, cleanses, heals and strengthens the raw, sore inside skin, or membrane, and in this way drives out catarrh and makes you proof against this filthy, disgusting disease.

Colds, which often hang on for weeks, can be quickly cured with this cleansing, healing, antiseptic balm. All drug stores sell it for fifty cents a bottle, and the one bottle is generally all that is needed to effect a complete cure. Try it today.

MILLER CONVICTED.

"Doggie" Miller, a local character, was convicted in municipal court late Wednesday afternoon on a charge of stealing lap robes and other paraphernalia from a farmer's buggy on south Union street several weeks ago. Miller when arraigned Wednesday morning, denied the charge, but evidence introduced in the hearing tended to prove the charge against him. He was fined $10.00 and costs.

PERRY FARMERS WIN ONE POINT IN INJUNCTION

DEMURRER SUBMITTED BY
ERIE RAILROAD'S COUNSEL IS OVERRULED.

Wednesday morning, in common pleas court, Judge William Kluger handed down his decision on one of the important points at issue in the fight between the Perry township farmer citizens and the Erie Railroad company over the Bellefontaine road crossing matter, which recently resulted in the "Boston Tea Party" session held by the fighting citizens of Perry. The decision was in favor of the Perry citizens who are still on top in the controversy.

Judge Kluger did not pass upon the injunction proceedings which were begun by the trustees of Perry township, that case being yet to be heard on its merits. The court, today, only ruled on the demurrer which had been submitted in the injunction case by the attorneys for the Erie company. The demurrer raised the question of the right of township trustees to inaugurate the injunction proceedings, contending that the county commissioners were the only ones empowered with authority to deal with the railroad company in the matter of the proposed double tracking of the road and the erection of an overhead crossing. Judge Kluger held that the township trustees had authority to act in the matter and the injunction case will be heard later on its merits. The date for this hearing has not yet been set.

Cincinnati, O., Dec. 4.—That desire to help other girls who may be disappointed in love is one of the motives prompting her to bare her own charges in court was the declaration made today by Miss Florence Dossbach, 19, who sued Wilbur M. Pollard for $10,000, alleging breach of promise to wed.

Pollard is head of an employment agency where Miss Dossbach says she was engaged as stenographer three years ago.

He agreed to marry her as soon as he and his first wife were divorced, she says, but failed to do so and recently married Miss Emma Huenecke who also was employed at his office.

MEN AND MATTERS

Police received a complaint from Brice avenue residents Wednesday morning against a strange tramp armed with an iron rod, who had been "pan handling" in that locality. According to the report, the "cadger" would approach a house and knock on the door with the rod, thus frightening inmates. Patrolman Wallace detailed to investigate, was unable to locate the fellow.

At a meeting of the executive committee of the federated Bible classes at the Y. M. C. A. building tonight, a new contract will be entered into with George R. Wendling for the production of his lectures here the week beginning February 16th instead of March 16th, as previously agreed on. Lectures will be given on the following subjects: "Unseen Realities;" "The Hebrew Lawgiver;" "The Man of Galilee;" "Saul of Tarsus;" "The Imperial Book;" "Is Death the End?" and "Lincoln, Master of Men." The last named will bring the course to an end.

Western Ohio railway construction men Wednesday morning replaced the wooden trestle spanning a small creek near Mt. Cory, with the old iron overhead bridge which formerly was used at the Erie railroad viaduct southwest of this city. The replacement necessitated a delay of more than an hour in the schedule of the system.

The regular monthly meeting of the Transportation club of Lima will be held at the Hotel Norval this evening at 8 o'clock and a good attendance of members and other parties interested is expected. The subject which will be discussed will be "Tracing Car Load and a Lost Car Load Shipments."

All the furnishings for the new Lima Club have been purchased by the committee having it in charge, with J. P. King as chairman. The purchases were made through G. E. Blum, and the appropriation of $10,000 was made, as the committee has a few hundreds left over. It is now expected the club will be ready for an opening on Washington's Birthday.

Jack Rosenbloom, former ad writer for the Big Store, later in business here for himself and for the past six months employed by a Scranton, Pa., dry goods emporium as sales manager and ad writer, has returned to Lima and taken service with the Boston Store, the first of his holiday publicity stunts now appearing daily in The News. Jack is a hustler of the twentieth century type and popular everywhere but in the composing rooms of the various newspapers, where he is a "bear" and insists on getting what he wants. Also his ads bring results.

The first of the Christmas openings in the big mercantile houses occurs tonight at the Newsom-Hawisher company's emporium on the Square, Santa arriving from Toledo Wednesday afternoon and is making headquarters there. A big reception will be tendered him tonight with souvenirs for the crowd.

Mr. Henry Wemmer was the last last night to a party of about thirty-five gentlemen friends whom he entertained at an elaborate dinner at his home, corner of Market and Jameson avenue. Cards and billiards followed the splendid dinner and the evening was most thoroughly enjoyed by all. Mr. John Eckler, of Cincinnati, was a guest of honor at the event.

At a meeting of the executive committee of the Lima Poultry Fanciers Association Tuesday evening the premium list for the annual poultry show to be held in Memorial Hall in January, was again considered. It is quite likely that the list will be completed at the meeting of the association, next week.

Mrs. Shaw, of the team of Shaw and Lantz, appearing at the Orpheum theatre, is quite ill at the room at the Uhlman hotel. Her illness has made her work at the Orpheum quite difficult, yet she has so far been able to appear at each performance.
